

Davis Sailing Team Benefit Regatta

DESCRIPTION

Lake Washington Sailing Club is pleased to host a benefit regatta for the Davis Sailing Team at the University of California, Davis. As a student activity, the sailing team receives no funding from the university yet they compete against other teams from all over the coast, including UC Berkley, Stanford, California Maritime Academy and others. In order to help fund their competitive sailing, all proceeds (minus cost) from this regatta will go directly to the UC Davis sailing program. In return the students will be hosting this regatta "college style" meaning three minute audio starts, short courses and best of all lots of racing. Come out and show your support. GO AGGIES!
